Decree of Dissolution (Divorce) For a Non-Covenant Marriage with Minor Children

What the Decree Means to You. The Decree is the Court Order that legally ends your marriage. The Decree, once the judge or commissioner has signed it, is important because it determines the rights and responsibilities of both you and your ex-spouse. It tells the parties what they can and cannot do. If either party does not do what the Decree tells him/her to do, then the other party may ask the court for help. This is a very important document. Once it has been signed by the judge, your rights and responsibilities are affected forever.

Failure to do what the Decree tells you to do could get you into trouble with the court. This does not mean that the court will police whether you are following the Decree. It does mean you or your ex-spouse can request a Contempt Order or an Order to enforce parts of the Decree if you or your ex-spouse fails to do what the Decree tells you to do.

Getting Your Divorce Finalized. Before your divorce can become final, a judicial officer must sign what we call a Decree of Dissolution of Marriage. The Decree tells you who will get the property, who pays the debts, who gets Legal Decision-Making, who pays support and so forth.

Divorce by Default. If you have a Default Hearing, you must repeat as closely as possible what you requested in your Petition. You cannot mark something different in the Decree from what you asked for in the Petition, unless your spouse has provided written consent. If you try to do this, the judicial officer will not sign the Decree. If you want to change your requests to the court, you must file an amended Petition. It is a good idea to have your Petition handy when you fill out your Decree.

The Decree. Fill out the Decree before you go to your hearing or before you give it to the judge to sign. Do not fill in the judge's signature and date. If the judge disagrees with anything you have written, he or she will change it before signing the Decree.

Criteria for Utilizing a Consent Decree

- You or your spouse filed a petition for Divorce or Petition for Legal Separation AND,
- You do not have a "covenant" marriage AND,
- You and your spouse agree to all terms of the divorce or legal separation such as division of property and debt, whether there will be spousal maintenance (alimony) and if so, how much, and if there are minor children, you agree on all terms of legal decision-making, support and parenting time AND,
- You and your spouse will provide your notarized signatures on the "Consent Decree" to indicate your agreement on all terms; AND,
- If your case involves minor children, you and your spouse have attended, or will attend, the Parent Information Program before you file a Consent Decree;
