MANNER: In person.

10/16/13@5:40pm 22350 S. Ellsworth Road, Queen Creek 85142 I arrived to serve Mr. Jeff Brown at the City Council meeting. I was told to see a particular woman about serving at the Council meeting. As I was walking up to her, I observed Mr. Jeff Brown. He took out his phone and was either filming me or taking my picture. The woman instructed me to see the City Legal Council. She said the Council would be taking a break soon and that I could wait if I liked. I told her I would wait. While waiting it appeared that Mr. Brown was texting on his phone. Shortly after this I observed two policemen approach. A few minutes later the Mayor announced the meeting would be taking a break. As this was going on, one of the officers walked towards the front of the room. I went down the center aisle towards where Mr. Jeff Brown was sitting and the podium. The officer walked over from the side of the room to stop me. I sat the service documents on the top of the podium and pointed at Jeff Brown. I said, "Mr. Jeff Brown, this is a subpoena for you and you have been served". As I was leaving I realized that I had not identified myself. I again addressed Mr. Brown saying " Oh yeah, I'm an Officer of the Superior Court and that subpoena is for you and you are served". As I was pulling out of my parking spot, Officer Lopez Badge #1522, stopped me and asked to see my ID. I provided my court issued ID which he looked at and then he wrote down my information and license plate number. After this he said I could go.
