

Tammy Irvin is the Associate Jury Commissioner/Jury Manager for the Pinal County Clerk of the Superior Court, Amanda Stanford. The Associate Jury Commissioner is charged with the responsibility of providing qualified jurors for trials in multiple Pinal County Courts and plays a vital role in maintaining open lines of communication with the public, the Bench, and our Justice partners.

Tammy has been employed by the Clerk of the Superior Court for 15 years. Prior to her current appointment, Tammy has served as the main line operator, customer service clerk and finally the lead customer service clerk, and has 18 years of customer service experience. Tammy now focuses on the delivery of excellent service and fairness when providing jury services to Pinal County on behalf of the Clerk of the Court. Tammy oversees the execution of summoning potential jurors, and ensuring viable jury pools are available for trial selections.

Before joining the Clerk of the Superior Court in 2001, Tammy worked in the auto sales industry for major dealerships where her responsibilities included supervisory and customer service functions.

Tammy is passionate about her role as the Associate Jury Commissioner and strives for quality and excellent service in all aspects of the Jury Department while fostering positive relationships with all judicial staff, peers and the public. Tammy is excited about the jury department's future potential and is committed to bringing improved services to such a critical and fundamentally necessary aspect of the judicial system.
