INFORMATION ON LEGAL NOTICE FOR GUARDIANSHIPS AND CONSERVATORSHIPS FOR AN ADULT

1. WHAT IS LEGAL NOTICE TO ALL INTERESTED PERSONS: After you have filled out AND filed the guardianship and conservatorship Petition and other court papers with the Court, you must tell all interested persons about the papers and Court hearing.

A. WHAT COURT DOCUMENTS DO I NEED TO GIVE NOTICE ABOUT? These are the documents you need to give the people who are entitled to notice:

- Notice of Hearing: This document provides you with the hearing date, location and the name of the Judge/Commissioner who will hear the case.
- Petition: This document explains what you want the Judge/Commissioner to do and why.

It is recommended that you give people copies all documents you filed with the court so you know you gave those people copies of the right documents. You then must list in the PROOF OF NOTICE (see section C, below) the names of all the documents you gave copies of, and the people you gave the documents to.

B. WHAT ARE THE WAYS TO GIVE LEGAL NOTICE?

- Service by Registered Process Server or Sheriff means giving formal notice that is required in some cases for some persons. It requires that a registered process server or the sheriff serves the documents on the interested persons and provides an Affidavit of Service to the court stating the person was served.
- Acceptance of Service / Personal Service means that a person accepts service of the papers. The other party must sign the Acceptance of Service form in of a Notary Public and original document is filed with the court.
- Mail or hand delivery is a less formal but important way of giving notice to other persons in some cases. When you are required to give notice by mail, 1st class postage-prepaid mail is usually accepted. Certified or registered mail with return receipt is an extra step you can take to prove that the person you want to have notice received the notice. If you choose this method of service, use the form "Affidavit of Service by Registered Mail" found on the Clerk's website or obtain at the Clerk's office or satellite offices.
- Affidavit of Publication is when you do not know the address of the person to whom you need to give notice. For publication, you need to try to find the person who is supposed to get notice, and prove to the court everything you did everything you could to try to find the person or to get the person's address. Petitioner would file "Affidavit Showing Circumstance Why Notice of Publication Was Used", listing the attempts in finding the person. Then, you must publish the notice at least 3 times in a newspaper in the county where the court hearing is held.

C. HOW DO I SHOW THAT I GAVE LEGAL NOTICE?

- PROOF OF NOTICE is the document you sign and file with the Court to prove you gave notice to all interested persons, and how you did it. You must fill out this form after you have served the documents on all interested persons. (See Step 1A). There are other documents that go with the PROOF OF NOTICE to show that service was made, depending on the type of service you used. These documents may include the following:
  - 1) Affidavit of Supporting Publication and Declaration of Due Diligence (can be obtain at the clerk's office or satellite offices)

- 2) Affidavit of Service submitted by the process server or sheriff, OR
- 3) Acceptance of Service (can be obtained at the clerk's office or satellite offices)
- 4) Affidavit of Service by Registered Mail (can be obtained at the clerk's office or satellite offices)

D. WHEN CAN YOU SKIP GIVING LEGAL NOTICE?

- WAIVER OF NOTICE is when a person required to get notice waives that right and signs the Consent and Waiver of Notice. Generally, but not always, a person who is required to be personally served can accept service by signing the Consent and Waiver of Notice. However, if the incapacitated adult who needs the guardian signs the Waiver, that incapacitated adult must also attend the hearing or service is not good OR,
- Party is present at the hearing and will accept service. Only rely on this method if you are absolutely certain the person will be at the hearing and will accept service.

2. TIME FRAMES TO GIVE LEGAL NOTICE: Generally, you must give all interested persons notice of the court papers at least 14 days before the hearing. If you are giving NOTICE BY PUBLICATION, the first publication must be at least 14 days before the hearing.

Note: The newspaper will not provide the AFFIDAVIT OF PUBLICATION to you until all 3 notices have been published. When you receive the Affidavit of Publication from the newspaper, you must file original Affidavit with the Clerk of the Superior Court.

3. WHO IS ENTITLED TO LEGAL NOTICE: Here is a guide when, and to whom, you must give notice of guardianship and conservatorship of an adult (ARS 14-5309 AND 14-5405):

- Incapacitated adult: Personally serve the adult who you say needs the guardianship.

Note: WAIVER OF NOTICE by the adult is not legal unless the adult comes to the court hearing in person.

- Parents and/or spouse of the incapacitated adult: Personally serve the spouse and parents of the adult, if they are in the State of Arizona. Otherwise, you can give notice by mail or hand-delivery if they are not in the State of Arizona or by publication if you do not know the address of the person.
- Others: Give notice by mail, hand-delivery or publication to all the following:
  - 1) Any adult children of the person;
  - 2) Any person who is serving as the guardian or conservator or who has the care and legal decision-making of the person;
  - 3) If the person has no parent or spouse or adult children, then to the closest adult relative of the person, if any can be found, AND
  - 4) Any person who has filed a Demand for Notice.

4. THE METHODS OF PERSONAL SERVICE: There are several ways to give personal service that will be accepted by the Court.

- Acceptance of Service: The person must sign the Acceptance form in front of a notary and return it to you, but the signature date cannot be earlier than the date you filed the court papers. The signature on this form does not mean the person agrees with the papers. It means that he or she admits receiving the papers, without being served in person by a Sheriff or Process Server.
- Process Server: You generally must pay this person or company to do this for you. A process server will give the papers to the person at home, work, or other location. The process server will give the Court a sworn Affidavit stating that the person was served. The disadvantage of this method is the cost and that it requires the process server to find the person. If you decide to use this method, look under "PROCESS SERVER" in the Yellow Pages to find someone who can serve your papers.

- Sheriff: This method requires you to contact the Sheriff's Office in the County where the person lives to arrange for a Sheriff's deputy to serve the papers. This method requires you to pay a fee to the Sheriff's office, unless you receive a Waiver or Deferral, which is available through the Court for persons who cannot afford the cost of Service.

5. WHAT ELSE TO KNOW ABOUT LEGAL NOTICE: Even if you are required to personally serve someone, you still have to give notice by mail or hand-delivery to other interested persons. You will still have to sign and file the PROOF OF NOTICE to show the Judge/Commissioner that you gave notice to everyone as required by law.
6. HOW DOES A PERSON WHO GETS NOTICE OBJECT TO THE PETITION: Sometimes a person who receives Notice wants to object to the Petition, or tell the Judge/Commissioner something besides what is in the Petition. Person can contact the office of Clerk of the Superior Court for more information on filing an Objection.
7. COMPLETE PROOF OF NOTICE OF MAILING: You must complete the PROOF OF NOTICE form. Be sure to list the copies of papers given, and the names of the persons to whom you gave the copies. Also list the date you gave the person copies, the type of service, and the relationship between the person to whom you gave copies and the person who has or will have the guardian and conservator. Be sure the attorney for the person who has or will have the guardian and conservator gets copies, if applicable.
8. FILE PROOF OF NOTICE AND ANY WAIVER:
  - A. MAKE COPIES: Make 2 copies of the Proof of Notice, Consent and Waiver of Notice (if any) and Acceptance of Service (if any).
  - B. GO TO THE CLERK: Take the original and 2 copies of the PROOF OF NOTICE AND WAIVER OF NOTICE/ACCEPTANCE OF SERVICE (if any) to the Filing Clerk at the Customer Service Counter who will file the original and stamp "copy" on each of the 2 copies. Give one set of copies to the clerk to forward to the assigned judge. Keep a copy of each document for your records and bring them with you to the court hearing.
9. OTHER HELP: If you still have questions about this procedure, you can ask a lawyer for legal advice. You can look up a lawyer in the telephone book under "attorneys."

INSTRUCTIONS

Serving the Other Party

1. SERVING THE OTHER PARTY:

- After you have filed your court papers with the Clerk of the Court, you must serve the papers on the other party.
- Service means giving legal notice to the other party (or parties) that you have filed court papers. You must provide proof of service to the court.
- This packet explains the steps you need to take to serve the other party and what forms you must use.
- By completing the steps for service, you tell the court that the other party has received a copy of the court papers. After the other party is served, the other party will be given a time limit to file a Response or Answer. The Response or Answer is the other party's written statement to your request. The Response or Answer tells you, and the court, what the other party wants.

2. METHODS OF SERVICE:

Read the choices below to make sure that you are using the correct method of service. Select the method of service that works best for you. (If the other party lives outside of the United States, you should see a lawyer to find out which method of service will work best for you.)

- A. Service by Acceptance. This method requires you to give, or mail the court papers to the other party and include a "Family Court Acceptance of Service" form. The other party must sign the "Family Court Acceptance of Service" form in front of a Notary Public and return it to you. The other party cannot sign the "Family Court Acceptance of Service" until after you have filed the court papers with the court. The other party's signature on the "Family Court Acceptance of Service" does not mean that he/she agrees with the court papers. It means that the other party admits receiving the papers, without being served in person by the sheriff or a process server.

Service is complete at the time the other party signs the "Family Court Acceptance of Service." If you choose this method of service, use the "Family Court Acceptance of Service" form.

WARNING: Do not use this method of service if you are the victim of domestic violence, or believe the other party will hurt you, take your money, or take your children. If you believe the other party will become violent or uncooperative when you ask him/her to accept service, use one of the methods of service described below.

- B. Service by Registered Process Server. This method requires you to hire, and pay, a registered process server to serve the other party with court papers. A process server is a person who will give the papers to the other party at home, work, or other location. This method of service costs more than service by acceptance and requires the process server to find the other party. If you decide to use this method, look under "Process Server" in the Yellow Pages to find someone who can serve your papers. Service is complete at the time the process server hands the other party the court papers. If you decide to use this method, and the other party lives outside of Arizona, you would need to find a registered process server in the state where the other party lives.
- C. Service by Sheriff. This method requires you to contact the Sheriff's Office in the county where the other party lives to arrange for a Sheriff's deputy to give the other party the court papers. This method requires you to pay a fee to the Sheriff's Office. The Sheriff's Office will give the Court a Sworn Affidavit of Service stating that the person was served.

NOTE: Pinal County Sheriff's Deputy can only serve parties that are located within Pinal County. If the other party lives outside Pinal County, you will need to contact the Sheriff's Office in that county for information regarding service.

- D. Service by Certified Mail. This method of service allows you to give notice by a special type of mail. You can send the court papers by giving the post office copies of the court papers in an envelope, postage prepaid, to be sent to the other party by any form of mail requiring a signed and returned receipt. This is often called Certified Mail, Restricted Delivery by the post office. This means that the other party must sign for the papers.

If the other party signs a receipt (green receipt) for the papers, the green receipt will be returned to you in the mail. You must then file an affidavit with the court stating (1) that the court papers were sent to the other party, (2) that the papers were received by the other party, as evidenced by the original green receipt you attach to the affidavit; and (3) the date the party received the documents. A copy of the affidavit you will need is provided in the packet.

- E. Other Methods of Service. There may be other ways to serve the other party. To learn more about these other ways, you should see a lawyer for help.

3. WHEN YOU CANNOT FIND THE OTHER PARTY:

Before you begin service by Publication, you must first complete the "Declaration of Due Diligence and Request for Alternate Means of Service (Publication)" for the Judge to grant service by Publication.

If the Judge approves service by Publication the "Order for Alternate Means of Service" will be signed and a copy of the Order mailed to you, at that time you can continue with Publication.

- A. Service by Publication. You may use this method only if you do not know where the other party lives, or cannot find the other party. Service by publication is your "last resort." It is used only if you do not have a current address for the other party and have tried, unsuccessfully, to find the other party. Use a paper of general circulation and that are familiar with the requirements and regularly publishes legal notices.

Tips for Finding the Other party: Before the Court will accept "Service by Publication," you must have made every reasonable effort to find the Respondent and to give actual notice of this case by personal service of the required documents. You will be required to state, under penalty of perjury, the steps you have taken to try to locate the Respondent and if the Court is not satisfied that you have taken all reasonable steps, your case may be delayed until the Court is satisfied all such steps have been taken.

Examples of steps you MUST take: verify the Respondent is not at any last known address(es), talk to Respondent's friends, family members, employer, co-workers, former co-workers or employer(s), or anyone else you think may have a current address. Search telephone directories, the Internet, voter registration records, obituaries, and even the morgue. You may also have to consider hiring a private detective or a company that charges a fee to do computer searches to help you track down the other party. If you know the other party's date of birth and/or Social Security Number, this method may work for you.

Service by Publication can be expensive and may delay your court case. You would need to contact the newspaper to determine the cost of publication. Application for Deferral is only applicable to Pinal County newspapers. If you need to publish in another County or State, the Deferral of Fees is not applicable.

1. Publication must be done in the county were the case originated:

This method requires that a copy of the “Summons” be published in a newspaper of general circulation in Pinal County once a week for four consecutive weeks.

If the other party’s last known address was also in Pinal County then the publication above will suffice for service to the other party.

2. How to publish service if the other party’s last known address is in Arizona, but not in the county in which your case is pending:

- i. You must publish in the county in which your case is pending and you must publish in a newspaper in the county of the last known residence of the person to be served.
- ii. To publish in another county (not Pinal County) you will need to contact a newspaper in that county.
- iii. After you have contacted the newspaper and inquired about publication, mail or deliver the payment (or certified copy of the Order of Deferral) and “Letter to Newspaper” provided in this packet, along with copies of the “Summons” or documents you filed with the Court, to the newspaper for publication.
- iv. Wait for the newspaper to send you the original document called “Affidavit of Service” in five weeks.

3. Complete Your Paperwork. Fill out the “Affidavit Supporting Publication” provided in this packet. The “Affidavit Supporting Publication” is a statement affirming or swearing under oath that you have done everything possible to try to find the other party. File the original “Affidavit Supporting Publication” with the Clerk of the Superior Court.

You must also file the original “Affidavit of Service” that you received from the newspaper(s), verifying and stating the dates of publication.

WHEN IS A WRITTEN RESPONSE TO THE COURT PAPERS DUE?

- LOOK AT THE TIMETABLE BELOW. If the last day for the other party to respond falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, you do not count that day. The last day you count to determine if you can file the default papers, must be a day when this court is open for business.
- INCLUDE WEEKENDS AND HOLIDAYS. In counting the days, include weekends and holidays until you reach the number of days in the Timetable below. If the other party files a written Response or Answer with the court, you CANNOT FILE BY DEFAULT.

DEFAULT TIMETABLE
SERVICE BY	COUNT	EVENT
