PINAL COUNTY

INSTRUCTIONS AND FORMS

Provided as a Public Service by
REBECCA PADILLA
Clerk of the Superior Court

EMERGENCY ORDERS WHEN THE COURT IS CLOSED

The Court is open Monday through Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. except on holidays.

If you are seeking an Order of Protection; an Injunction Against Harassment or an Injunction Against Workplace Harassment from the Court and you are present in the Courthouse by 5:00 p.m., then you will be allowed to file your petition and appear in front of a judge that same day. Court staff and a judge will remain available to address your petition until the hearing is concluded, even if it will extend beyond regular court hours.

For all other emergency orders (legal decision making/child custody, child dependency, guardianship or conservatorship), the required petition and related paperwork must be submitted and accepted by the Clerk of the Court by 5:00 p.m. Your paperwork will not be accepted by the Clerk of the Court if it is incomplete or in error. Please be advised that filling out the necessary paperwork for these types of emergency orders may take a considerable amount of time. You should, therefore, plan for at least two hours to complete the required forms. If you are unable to file the necessary paperwork before the Court closes, you may return to court the next business day and file it then.

If there is an emergency that may result in serious harm to someone before you can return to Court, you can take one or more of the following actions to protect yourself or another person:

If someone is injured or in danger of imminent physical harm or if a crime has been committed or is about to be committed call 911.

If you or your child are the victim of domestic violence or are in danger of becoming the victim of domestic violence you can call your local law enforcement agency, and they can place you in contact with a judge by telephone. The judge can hold a hearing over the telephone and determine whether to issue an emergency order of protection.

If a child is in danger of abuse or neglect, you can call the Department of Child Safety's Child Abuse Hotline at 1888-SOS-CHILD (1-888-767-2445).

If a vulnerable adult is in danger of abuse or neglect, call the Adult Abuse Hotline at 1-877-SOS-ADULT (1-877-767-2385).

WHEN CAN I GET AN EMERGENCY COURT ORDER?

If your child has been harmed by the other parent or is in immediate danger of harm in the care of the other parent, you have several options available to protect the child. Those options include the following:

1. Contact law enforcement if your child has been harmed by a parent;
2. Contact Child Protective services if your child is in danger;
3. Seek an order of protection if the child has been harmed or may be harmed by domestic violence;
4. Ask a Court for an emergency order without notice to the other party (available in limited circumstances);
5. Ask a Court for an expedited hearing with the other parent to address the protection of the child.

Generally, the Court CANNOT grant a request for an order unless the other party has notice of the order being requested and an opportunity to be heard by the Court regarding the request. In very limited cases, however, the Court can issue an emergency order without providing the other party notice of the requested order. An order issued without notice to the other party is known as an “ex parte order”.

Rule 48 of the Arizona Rules of Family Law Procedure governs when a Court may issue an ex parte emergency order. In summary, the Rule requires the following:

Required Paperwork: A party seeking a temporary ex parte order without notice shall do so by filing a motion, verified or supported by affidavit, together with a proposed form of order, and a notice of hearing on the motion. The motion shall be filed after or concurrently with an initial pre-decree, post-decree or post-judgment petition.

Circumstances Justifying an Ex Parte Order Exist: A temporary order may be granted without written or oral notice to the other party or that party's attorney ONLY if:

1. It clearly appears from specific facts shown by affidavit or by the verified motion that irreparable injury will result to the moving party or a minor child of the party, or that irreparable injury, loss, or damage will result to the separate or community property of the party if no order is issued before the other party can be heard in opposition; and
2. The moving party or the party's attorney certifies to the court, in writing, the efforts, if any, that have been made to give the notice to the other party or the reasons supporting the claim that notice should not be required. Rule 48(A), Arizona Rules of Family Law Procedure, (emphasis added).

You must fully satisfy all of the requirements of this Rule for the Court to issue an emergency ex parte order. If your situation does not meet the requirements of this rule, you will not be granted an emergency ex parte order.

If you need the Court to address a matter urgently but do not qualify for an emergency ex parte order, you may file a request for an “Expedited Hearing”. If the Court finds good cause for the request, it can set a hearing for you and the other party to come to court. The Judge will hear from both parties on the issue in dispute.
